WALLINGFORD.

A special town meeting is called for this evening in town hall to take action on the matter of lesuing town bonds not to exceed $94,000 for the purpose of paying up all the outstanding in debtedness of the town and establish a sinking fund which in its turn is expected to meet and pay the bonds The point in favor of the plan is that at the present time there is outstanding accounts that are bearing 5 and 6 per cent. interest, while the money on the proposed bonds can be procured at 4 or less per cent., which would prove quite a saving to the town.

The comedy characters in "The Cotton King," which will be presented at the opera house to-morrow evening, ar extremely funny, and always put the audience in a happy frame of mind constantly producing hearty laughter. The comedienne plays the part of a mili hand who is crazy to go upon the stage of the music halls as a female Hercules, and her opposite, Benjamin Tapper, is a diminutive chap who wants "pair" with her. They finally pair for life.

The iceboat "Coupler" was hunched upon the lake Saturday and for three hours in the afternoon was flying across the lake and back, carrying loads of boys and girls, who enjoyed the sport immensely. The speed attained by this craft at times under favorable winds is almost startling, and would, If space would permit, outstrip any express train that runs in the country. With proper handling there is but little Year of accidents.

The only change in the new rallroad time table which goes into effect to-day which affects strains stopping at this station is in the early evening train going south which has left at 6:21, and will now leave at 6:19, just two minutes

A short time after his arrival he was sent for from a small town in Oregon to organize a Sunday school. He went there and found that the only place to hold one in was in the court house, After staying a week he returned to Walla Walla, leaving a woman in charge of the Sunday school. Once a month he visited the school. The opening of the Sunday school was the first Christian work ever held in the town. During the first year 100 prayer books and 1,000 tracts were given out.

Now when you go there you find many churches. In one small town a church has been built and enlarged three times. The speaker also related many of his experiences during his first year in the far northwest and told of the work which had been accomplished since that time. A contribution in aid of this mission was received wind was a very liberal one.

The affair will take place at the Germania hall, Tuesday, January 28, and nothing will be spared to make it a great success.

Enjoyed by Hundreds.

Hundreds were out skating at Dickerman's pond Saturday and yesterday. The tee is six or seven inches in thickness. The pond covers three acres. It is a few minutes' walk from the terminus of the West Chapel street line of the Pair Haven and Westville electric railroad and nearly opposite Yale Field. The water is but two or three feet deep. A watchman is employed to keep the pond cleared of debris and in fine order generally for the skaters' swiftest work.

NEW HAVEN EXHIBITORS

At Ansonia Poultry Show This Weak. New Haven poultry fanciers will be well represented at the Ansonia poultry show, which opens next Wednesday and continues until Saturday. C. P.
